

Survival Dry Bag

Attach a small
20 kN+ carabiner
and whistle
to the D-ring

Suggested gear:

First Aid

1. latex gloves
2. antiseptic cleaning wipes
3. 10cm x 5cm Pressure Bandage
4. 6 of 10cm x10cm gauze pads
5. 7.5cm x 5m gauze roller bandage
6. 2.5cm adhesive tape
7. 6 of Elastoplast bandaids
8. triangular bandage
9. moleskin
10. children's benadryl, 3-4 sugar cubes
11. personal medications

Fire

1. matches/lighter/flint/mag bar/tinder
2. candle

Shelter

1. Hug A Tree plastic bag or
2. emergency blanket or bivy bag
3. 5-10m light nylon rope/parachute cord

Signals

1. whistle (Fox 40)
2. mirror (on compass)
3. pencil flare: 3 red flares, 3 bear bangers
4. marking pen and flagging tape for messages

Water

1. water purifier tablets
2. 5L dry bag can be used to carry water
3. tin cup or small pot

Food

1. nuts, semisweet chocolate, dried soup, energy bars, instant dried oatmeal, instant coffee, tea, hot chocolate, other

Also include

1. compass with declination adjustment
2. map of the area (1:50 000)
3. fixed or locking blade knife
4. headlamp with extra batteries and bulb
5. toilet paper

---

The GSAR Manual suggests you also consider this gear for your survival dry bag or daypack:

1. 1L to 2L of water
2. needle/thread
3. 3-5m light wire
4. duct tape wrapped around a container
5. sunscreen, sunglasses
6. insect repellent
7. extra clothing (wool or fleece)
8. folding saw or small axe
9. lightweight tarp
10. small stove and fuel
11. 2 of 12hr light sticks
12. minimal amount of fishing gear
13. extra batteries to fit your equipment
14. GPS or SPOT or radio or sat phone or cell
15. CPR pocket mask (SAR)
16. clear protective glasses (SAR)